

Contextualization

After reading the document ask yourself:

- When and where was the document created?
- What was different then? What was the same?
- How might the circumstances in which the document was created affect its content?